COMPLAINT

The Complainant, being duly sworn, makes corrulaint to the above-named Court and states that there is probable cause to believe that the Defendant committed the following offense (s). The complanant states that the following facts establish PROBABLE CAUSE:

Your Complainant is a Sergeant with the Metropolitan Airports Commission Police Department who alleges the following:

On June 11, 2007, at approximately 12:00 p.m.. Sergeant Karsnia entered the main men's public restroom of the North Star Crossing in the Lindbergh Terminal, at the Minneapolis-St. Paul International Airport, County of Hennepin, State of Minnesota Sergeant Karsnia was in plain clothes for the purpose of investigating allegations of sexual conduct in the public bathroom. Sergeant Karsnia observed that there were numerous persons in the bathroom appearing to use the bathroom for its intended purposes and some but not all, of the bathroom stalls were occupied. Sergeant Karsnia entered an unoccupied bathroom stall at the back of the restroom, the third stall from the back wall. Sergeant Karsma observed the shoes and ankles of unidentified people in each of the bathroom stalls adjacent to his.

At approximately 12:13 p.m., Sergeant Karsnia observed an older white male, later identified as the above-named Defendant, standing outside of the stall occupied by Sergeant Karsnia. Sergeant Karsnia observed the Defendant look through the crack between the stall door and its frame, into the stall that Sergeant Karsnia was occupying. Sergeant Karsnia observed the Defendant appear to look at his own fidgeting fingers and then return again to gazing into the stall of Sergeant Karsnia through the crack. Sergeant Karsnia observed the Defendant repeat this conduct in the same pattern for approximately two minutes. The Defendant peered long enough that Sergeant Karsnia was able to observe that the Defendant had blue eyes.

At approximately 12:15 p.m. Sergeant Karania observed that the individual occupying the stall to the left of Sergeant Karsnia flushed the toilet and exited the stall. Sergeant Karsnia observed the Defendant enter the stall and could see that the Defendant had placed his roller bag against the front of the stall door, which Sergeant Karsnia's experience has indicated is used to attempt to conceal sexual conduct by blocking the view from the front of the stall. Sergeant Karshia observed the Defendant's shoes and ankles. Sergeant Karsnia observed the Defendant tap his right foot, which Sergeant Karsnia recognized as a signal often used by persons communicating a desire to engage in sexual conduct. Sergeant Karsnia observed the Defendant tap his foot several more times and move his foot closer to the stall occupied by Sergeant Karsnia. Sergeant Karsnia racved his own foot up and down slowly. Sergeant Karsnia observed the Defendant move his right foot so that it touched Sergeant Karsnia's left foot, at which point the Defendant's foot was within the stall area of the stall occupied by Sergeant Karsnia. Sergeant Karsnia could hear other people using the restroom and observed that the bathroom stall to his right was occupied.

Sergeant Karsnia then observed the Defendant swipe his hand under the stall divider for a few seconds, swiping from the front of the stall back towards the back wall, which was done with the Defendant's hand palm-up and guiding it along the stall divider. Sergeant Karsnia observed the Defendant again swipe his hand in the same motion and manner Sergeant Karsnia observed the Defendant's make the same motion for a third time. Sergeant Karsnia observed that it was the Defendant's left hand due to the Eefendant's thumb position. Sergeant Karsnia also observed a gold ring on the Defendant's ring finger.

At approximately 12:19 p.m., Sergeant Karsnia showed the Defendant his police identification under the stall and pointed towards the exit, at which time the Defendant exclaimed "No!" Sergeant Karsnia again pointed to the exit Sergeant Karsnia observed the Defendant exit the stall with his bag and without flushing the toilet.
